

Meet the Camp Staff

Randolph Head Coach Johnathan Willis

Coach Willis begins his third season at the helm of the Randolph College Volleyball Team.

Coach Willis is no stranger to the local Lynchburg volleyball community. At Liberty University, his alma mater, Willis served as both a volunteer assistant for the NCAA Division I women's volleyball team as well as the head coach of the Flames men's volleyball club program. Under his guidance, the men's team finished the 2006-2007 season with a record of 20-8 and a second-place finish as well as a second place finish in the 2007-2008 season in the Eastern Intercollegiate Volleyball Association Southern Conference.

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Willis has worked as a local clinician at Liberty University's team camp, Heritage High School, and Timberlake Christian High School. He also served as the assistant coach at Brookville High School from 2005-2006, during which time the Bees won the district championship and finished second in regionals.

Randolph Assistant Coach Rachel Willis

Coach Willis begins her third season as the Assistant Coach of the Randolph College Volleyball Team.

Coach Willis played collegiate volleyball at Liberty University and played club volleyball for Rancho Valley Volleyball Club from California.

Rachel and Johnathan have been married for several years and are the proud parents to Aubriana Willis.
